

Weddings In The City Of The Blue Mountains

Introduction

Historically the Blue Mountains has always been a natural paradise with its unique and picturesque environment ideal for a variety of outdoor activities.

As the beauty of this area has become more and more recognised and visited, it has now become a popular choice for couples embarking on that most precious of life's journeys - their marriage.

The Blue Mountains City Council is pleased to allow Wedding Ceremonies and photographic sessions to be conducted in reserves and open spaces within the City limits.

There are many sites that are popular with residents and visitors alike for such an event, whether they be a secluded picturesque waterfall deep within a mountain valley, or an established park surrounded by cascading Rhododendron branches.

The Blue Mountains City Council has put this small booklet together to provide general information to prospective users.

All requests for approval should be in writing to the General Manager: Blue Mountains City Council, Locked Bag 1005, Katoomba, NSW 2780, or on the Application Form attached to the back of this booklet.

World Heritage Listing

In December 2000 the Greater Blue Mountains Area was listed for World Heritage.

The Blue Mountains is a dissected sandstone tableland that cradled the birth of new continental flora, while at the same time sheltering in its deepest recesses the floristic remnants of Gondwana. This vast and beautiful area of upland reserves, inhabited by indigenous people over millennia, stands adjacent to the largest metropolis in Australia.

Through their scale and symbiosis with the City of Sydney, the Greater Blue Mountains exemplify the links between wild places and human aspirations.

Considerations

When deciding on the venue that best suits you, there are many factors that may need to be taken into consideration.

Some considerations when making your venue choice are:

- ❖ Please consider the climatic information provided for you.
- ❖ If having a large party you may need to consider whether your site has enough parking facilities
- ❖ Amenities - if your service will be of some duration you may need to have toilet facilities close at hand
- ❖ The make up of the wedding guests - if you have elderly, visually or mobility impaired guest, locations such as isolated walking tracks or lookouts may prove difficult for them to navigate.
- ❖ Safety issues - some lookouts are only fenced in small sections which may be hazardous for young children to attend.

It is recommended that before committing to a location you visit the site preferably around the same time of year as your service will be held, this way you will get an idea of what vegetation will be flowering at that time, and also give you an indication of the amount of public traffic to the area, and the climate conditions.

Council is always interested in community feedback, and should you have any suggestions or comments after your event please forward them onto us.
